

All Doors Are Open In Kentucky

It is against the law to discriminate against any person who wants to rent or own housing. You have the right to fair housing regardless of your color, disability, familial status (whether you live with children under 18 years of age), national origin, race, religion or sex.

Fair Housing

What Fair Housing Law Means

The US and Kentucky Fair Housing acts are laws that provide equal opportunity to all people when buying, selling, renting, financing or insuring housing. You have the right to buy or rent where you choose a home, condominium, apartment, trailer or lot. Everyone must obey the law including property owners, real estate brokers, sales agents, operators, builders and developers, advertisers and advertising media, mortgage lenders, insurers, and banks or other financial institutions.

Exemptions

Exemptions from fair housing law are allowed for the rental of an owner-occupied duplex or rental of one room in a private home. The sale or rental of an owner-occupied home is exempt if the sale or rental takes place without a real estate agent or advertising. A religious organization may exercise a preference to rent to one of its members. It is allowable to refuse to rent on the basis of sex if the property is a single sex dormitory. A landlord may choose not to rent to unmarried couples. A gender-based exclusion from the law is allowed if the landlord can demonstrate that the exclusion is necessary for reasons of personal modesty or privacy. Exemptions are allowed if a landlord rents fewer than 10 units or to fewer than 10 persons in an owner-occupied facility. A landlord may refuse to rent on the basis of familial status if the property is intended for occupants 62 years of age or older or if 80 percent of the units have occupants 55 years of age or older and special services for older persons are provided.
