Subj: COVID-19 Vaccination Guidance and Current Locations

We have continued to keep up a steady pace of vaccinations in Kentucky. As of now, over 47% of Kentucky’s adult population has received at least one dose of the vaccine. However, as you can see below, there is now more than enough supply for every Kentuckian who wants a vaccine to get one.

On Monday, I was excited to announce the Team Kentucky Vaccination Challenge, an important step in our efforts to re-open Kentucky businesses to full capacity in a safe and responsible manner. The goal of this challenge is for 2.5 million citizens to receive their vaccinations in Kentucky. Once we meet this goal, it will be safe for us to lift all capacity restrictions for businesses and spaces that host 1,000 or fewer patrons. While this is likely to take up to six weeks, if enough Kentuckians sign up such that all available vaccine supply is utilized, we could accomplish this goal in as quickly as three and a half weeks. Please urge all your constituents to sign up and meet this challenge so that we can be not only safer and healthier but also on the road to a speedy recovery for Kentucky’s businesses.

We now have eight vaccine sites across the Commonwealth with more than 1,000 appointments available currently, including more than 10,000 appointments available at Cardinal Stadium in Louisville. Please look at the list below and, if the vaccine site is near the constituents you serve, publicize the available appointments and how to sign up.

As a reminder, there are currently four vaccine distribution programs operating within the Commonwealth: one administered by the state and three administered by the federal government. The three federal programs are:

- Vaccines distributed to local pharmacies, which in Kentucky include Walgreens and independent pharmacies (included in the list below) – open to those who are eligible under Kentucky’s vaccine distribution plan (see chart below)
- Vaccines distributed to federally qualified health centers (included in the list below)
- Vaccines distributed to veterans, Veterans Affairs staff, and Department of Defense employees

For the state-run program, Kentucky’s Department for Public Health has outlined a 4-phase vaccine distribution plan, based on guidance from the CDC:

Phase	Description
1A	Long term care facilities, assisted living facilities, health care personnel
1B	Anyone age 70 or older, First responders, Kentucky K-12 school personnel, Kentucky child care workers
1C	Anyone age 50 or older, anyone age 16 or older with medical or behavioral health conditions per the CDC that "are" or "might be" at increased risk of severe COVID-19 disease, all essential workers
2	Anyone age 40 or older
3	Anyone age 16 or older
4	Children under the age of 16 if the vaccine is approved for this age group (est. 18% of KY population)

We remain in Phase 3, meaning every Kentuckian over age 16 is eligible to sign up for a vaccine.

On Tuesday, the Food and Drug Administration and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention recommended a brief pause in administering the Johnson & Johnson vaccine due to reports of extremely rare complications. Although side effects have been reported in only six cases out of nearly 7 million doses administered, the state will follow this recommendation out of an abundance of caution. Please know that this pause does not affect the availability of the Moderna and Pfizer vaccines and both vaccines remain safe and effective. Thousands of vaccination slots with those two vaccines remain open and ready for Kentuckians to sign up to get their shot of hope.

The state-run program is distributing vaccines through regional vaccination sites, hospitals, and local health departments. Kentuckians who want to be sure to get the most updated information on vaccines and to get updates via a statewide list should sign up at <http://vaccine.ky.gov>. They can also view a map with updated information regarding regional vaccine sites at <https://govstatus.egov.com/kentucky-vaccine-map>.

Below is an updated list of vaccine sites located in each of Kentucky's Area Development Districts, along with contact information for your constituents to sign up. In addition to the regional and Kroger and Walmart sites, the list below also includes the local pharmacies participating in the federal retail pharmacy program.
